The Woodard Furniture Works have been ending out their new samples of fall furniture this week. They are shipping them to New York and Chicago.

A party consisting of Frank Smith and family, Felix Teal and wife, and M. E. Nelson and wife go to Linden tonight to camp out for a week at Byron lake. The Epworth Leagues of Owosso expect to send a delegation of from fifteen to twenty to the international convention at Toronto which will be held July 15-18. Paul M. Roth has his new place of business, 112 west Main street, nearly ready to move into. Much of the furniture is already moved and the stock will be moved tomorrow night.

The Y. M. C. A. Wheelman will give a strawberry run to Corunna tonight. Straw. berries will be served in Corunna, the proceeds to be applied on the Episcopal choir boys' outing fund.

The Woodard Furniture Works shut down tonight and will not start up until a week claim that 1 bar will do from Monday. The Casket factory also shuts down tonight but will probably resume work again on Tuesday.

The handle factory is running this week but will not run steadily owing to the failure to get timber to use. The company has been advertising for timber and are offering a good price for it but most farmers are too busy to bring it in at present.

Owosso lodge No. 81, K. of P., observed Sunday as memorial day, decorating the graves of brothers buried in Oakhill cemetery. Delegations also visited the Catholic cemetery and the cemetery at Vernon to decorate the graves of Knights buried there. Mrs. M. H. Knapp returned Saturday from South Lyon. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Zilpha Whipple, who will make an extended visit with her. Mrs. Whipple celebrated her 81st birthday Wednesday and with Mrs. Knapp drove down to Rush to see her great grandson, the son of

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith. Chas. A. Connor has again taken posses sion of the business established by him and carried on so long by him on west Exchange street. The business has been well cared for by E. B. Connor during the absence of HUNT'S C. A., but all will be pleased to welcome him back again and join in wishing him greater success than before.

new store 114 N. Washington street, Monday morning. The interior will be completely remodeled and made as convenient as possible for their business. They expect to have it ready for business about the first of

The Fat Men's Cycle Touring Club completed its organization yesterday by electing A. M. Bentley president, H. Kirk White secretary and treasurer. Membership is limited to 20. The club goes to St. Johns on the D. & M. this afternoon as the guests of E. Wykes and will make the run hom this evening.

The City Band and the West Owosso Band not being agreed as to which can make the most noise or play together the nearest like a single man and with the fewest errors, have decided to settle the question once for all on the American field of honor, whither all contestants have to resort to settle such wordy difficulties. In brief the two bands will play ball July 9.

The Owosso Cycle Path Club has been organized for carrying on the work of building one or more good bicycle paths out of the city. The Corunna path is already assured, with good prospects that it will be carried through to Durand before fall. The club has elected the following officers; C. W. Gale, president; E. Wykes, vice president; E. C. Van Ness, secretary; G. L. Taylor, treasurer.

Yesterday's Free Press contained the following item from Pontiac which will be of interest to Owosso friends of F. E. Converse: Supt. F. E. Converse, of Pontiac public schools, and C. W. Mr. Converse goes to Beloit, Wis., and Mr. Horton to Rochester, N. Y.

Extensive changes have been made recenty in the boiler feed arrangements at the Woodard Furniture Works. A new pump has been put in and new arrangements made in the piping, by which nearly all of the condensed steam is fed back into the boiler at a temperature very near the boiling point. The new arrangement has worked so satisfactorily and with such saving that a similar pump has been ordered for the casket factory. Next week the furpaces under the boilers will be fitted with a new device for securing more perfect combustion of the gases and cinders instead of allowing such a large part of them to get into the chimney before being burned.
